

Open Meeting Policy

In accordance with New York State's Open Meetings Law, as well as Education Law, Title 1, Article 5, Section 260a, Marion Public Library opens its Board of Trustee meetings to the general public. Closed, or executive sessions may be called as a portion of the open meeting and appropriate business transacted thereat. The minutes of the open meeting and of executive session are compiled and distributed to staff members and are available upon request. The minutes of the open meeting consist of a record or summary of all motions, proposals, resolutions and matter formally voted upon and the vote thereon.

Regular board meetings are scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month. They are usually held at the Marion Public Library at 7 pm
